EXPLANATORY NOTES

— One of the symbols below appearing before a name indicates the person's status in the 12th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China (CPC):

* = CPC Political Bureau Member

* = CPC Political Bureau Alternate Member

◎ = CPC Central Committee Member

○ = CPC Central Committee Alternate Member

— The "*" symbol after a name in the lists of the vice chairmen of the National People's Congress Standing Committee of the top leadership of the State Council indicates the person has been reelected to the post.

— The month and year following a name, except in the case of a foreigner, indicate the date the person assumed the post or the date he was first confirmed as holding the post. In case only the year is given, the information was taken from publications, such as the Yearbook of the Encyclopedia of China.

— The month and year following the name of an organization indicate the date of its establishment or the date it was first conformed as existing.

— An underlined name indicates the person has died, and the month and year following the name indicate the time of death. Persons clearly indicated in the preceding year's directory as having died are dropped from this year's listings.

— The "(f)" symbol following a name indicates the person is a female. However, the symbols are not given for the membership lists of women's organizations.

— In case the simplified version of the kanji ideograph is identical in Chinese and Japanese, the simplified version is used. In case the two versions differ, the conventional (old) form of Chinese ideograph is used.
