Sons of the Mountains

Ethnohistory of the Vietnamese Central Highlands to 1954

Gerald Cannon Hickey

This is the first volume of a two-volume study of the Vietnamese central highlands. Here Hickey traces the highland history from prehistoric ages to 1954, proposing that the diverse ethnic groups that inhabit this crucial area have evolved a common identity because of a number of interrelated economic, political, religious, and geographic factors. £31.50

Free in the Forest

Ethnohistory of the Vietnamese Central Highlands, 1954-1976

Gerald Cannon Hickey

This second volume of Hickey's ethnohistory follows the shifting fortunes of the highlanders from the Geneva Agreements of 1954 to the aftermath of the Vietnam War. During this period highland ethnonationalism reached a peak; Hickey shows that the highlanders became a political entity, devised relief efforts for war victims, and organized a dissident movement after the war's end. £21.00

Han Civilization

Wang Zhongshu

translated by K. C. Chang and collaborators

One of China's principal archaeologists here synthesises the latest archaeological research on the Han Dynasty, an era that is relatively unknown because of the paucity of its written records. 321 illus. £24.50

Court and Bakufu in Japan

Essays in Kamakura History

edited by Jeffrey P. Mass

This book contains eleven essays on aspects of the political, social, and institutional history of the Kamakura age, and shows why the newer warrior regime was able to gain ascendancy over the courtier system. £12.60
