INTRODUCTORY NOTE

This catalogue lists the mainland Chinese magazines and newspapers held by Union Research Institute, covering, with a few exceptions, the period of October 1949 to December 1966.

In order to adhere to the definitions of magazine and newspaper, such materials as the news releases of Hsinhua News Agency (NCNA) in English and Chinese, the People's Handbook and the periodical collection of documents are entered in the appendix, "Miscellaneous Materials on Microfilm."

In each entry, the title of the particular publication has been romanized first according to the Wade-Giles system (in boldface type) and then according to the system used in Communist China (in small caps and parentheses). This is followed by the English translation of the title (in italics and parentheses) and the place of publication, which is in turn followed by the number of pages or approximate footage of microfilm.

All publications listed in this catalogue may be purchased on 35mm, 100-foot reels of positive microfilm. The reduction ratios are 1:18 for newspapers and 1:14 for magazines. One frame, of which there are usually ten per foot, normally covers one newspaper or two magazine pages. There are altogether 716 magazine titles, totaling 400 microfilm reels; 426 newspaper titles, totaling 250 microfilm reels; and 76 titles of miscellaneous materials, totaling 450 microfilm reels. The prices are as follows:

(A)	1 reel	HK$150.00	US$25.00
	$\frac{1}{2}$ reel	HK\$ 75.00	US\$12.50
	$\frac{1}{4}$ reel	HK\$ 37.50	US\$ 6.25
(B)	1 reel	HK$ 90.00	US$15.00
	$\frac{1}{2}$ reel	HK\$ 45.00	US\$ 7.50
	$\frac{1}{4}$ reel	HK\$ 22.50	US\$ 3.75

Category (B) includes the mainland Chinese newspapers People's Daily and Kuangming Daily, and those magazines and newspapers published outside of mainland China listed under "Miscellaneous Materials on Microfilm." All other publications belong to category (A).

Prices are subject to change without notice. The minimum purchase is for one quarter reel. Special rates can be arranged for the purchase of the entire collection.
