To My Parents
And My Brother

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincere thanks are due to the late Professor Jerker Rosén for giving me a free choice of topic and for arranging LUND UNIVERSITY grants for my research in Great Britain and Germany; to his successor Professor Göran Rystad, who took over a supervisor's heavy duties; to Professors Birgitta Odén and Sven Tägil, who have had the fortitude to read the entire manuscript and suggested valuable improvements.

I also extend my thanks to Ambassador Dr. Gunnar Jarring for his unfailing encouragement and continuous interest in my work; to the Chairman of the Dept. of Uralic and Altaic Studies, Indiana University, Professor Denis Sinor, who warmly welcomed me to Bloomington and greatly encouraged my studies; and to Professor J. Bosson, Dr. H. Bräker, Sir O. Caroe, Mr. O. E. Clubb, FL K-R. Haellquist, Dr. B. Hayit, Professor Dr. W. Heissig, Professor J. Krueger, Professor A. Lamb, Professor L. Moses, Dr. P. Nightingale, Professor Dr. A. Temir, Dr. B. Utas, Professor A. S. Whiting, who all have tirelessly contributed in a constructive way. In addition, I would like to express my thanks to Mr. M. Cossolotto for his strenuous effort to correct the style of the dissertation, but all remaining mistakes are wholly mine. I am also grateful towards Mrs. Siw Axenholt, who typed the dissertation in a neat and efficient way.

Throughout my dissertation I have been able to use invaluable information deriving from interviews with Mr. İ. Alptekin, Dr. A. Bekin, Mr. Y. Buğra, Mr. W. J. Drew, Mr. N. Eriş, Mr. U. Hatipoğlu, Pater G. Hillbrenner, Rev. S. Moen, Rev. G. Roberntz and Mr. G. Söderbom.

I have numerous obligations to libraries and institutions, but I am especially indebted to the staff of Auswärtiges Amt (Bonn), Bundesarchiv (Koblenz), Centralinstitut for Nordisk Asienforskning (Copenhagen), Deutsche Lufthansa AG (Köln), Historiska Institutionen (Lund), India Office Library & Records (London), Indiana University (Bloomington), Lunds Universitetsbibliotek (Lund), Public Record Office (London), Riksarkivet (Stockholm), Royal Geographic Society (London), the Royal Society for Asian Affairs (London) and Utrikesdepartementet (Stockholm).

American-Scandinavian Foundation/Sverige-Amerika Stiftelsen (New York/Stockholm) and Svenska Forskningsinstitutet i Istanbul (Stockholm) contributed with generous grants, which made my visits to the USA and Turkey possible.

It is a Sisyphean task to mention every friend who has kindly helped me. However, my Turkish friend - and companion on many an interview - Selçuk Mülayim; my Swedish friends Walter Dittrich and Ingvar Lindgren; my German friends Rainer Krefft and his parents, the late Dr. Herbert Krefft and his wife Leni; the London quartet Karen and Michael Raymond, Ann Sheehy and Michael Wasilewski; the three musketeers of Bloomington, John P. Gilroy, Geraldo Flörsheim and John D. Tritt; must be remembered for their never failing friendship and hospitality.

This dissertation is dedicated to My Parents, who have made this work possible through personal sacrifice; to my Brother Lennart, who with his keen-witted comments and mental encouragement literally helped me through all the difficulties of a research project; and to the dachshund Bobbi, who has maintained an angelic tolerance for his Master's Doctoral thesis.

Istanbul, February 1977.
