MESA and Cambridge University Press gratefully acknowledge the support provided to the Editorial Office of IJMES by the University of Michigan.

Aims and Scope: The International Journal of Middle East Studies publishes articles and reviews concerning the area encompassing the Arab World, Iran, Turkey, the Caucasus, Afghanistan, Israel, Transoxiana, and Muslim South Asia from the seventh century to the present. Articles on communities or politics in Central Asia, Russia, Africa, or Europe that had or have strong Middle Eastern ties or contexts, or on relations between those regions and the Middle East, will also be considered. Particular attention will be paid to works dealing with history, political science, economics, anthropology, sociology, philology and literature, folklore, religion, law, and philosophy. Because of its interdisciplinary nature, IJMES does not accept technical or highly specialized material, nor does it publish in the areas of administration or training.
