

*Proclaim! (Read!) in the name of thy Lord and Cherisher, Who created –
Created man, out of a (mere) clot of congealed blood:
Proclaim! And thy Lord is Most Bountiful, –
He Who taught (the use of) the pen, –
Taught man that which he knew not.*

(Holy Qur'an 96:1-5)

MUSLIM WORLD

ALMANAC

The Definitive Reference of the Muslim World

Muslim World Almanac is a single volume encyclopedic compendium on Islam and the Muslim World, encompassing virtually every part of life in general, and Muslim life in particular. In a thousand pages, it brings to you an entire world of information made accessible through simple and clear writing and meticulous indexing. The attractive design and reader-friendly format, together with a soothing layout and elegant typography makes it an easy read.

This veritable goldmine of easy-to-use information has an extremely broad sweep that covers the following 16 major heads:

- A – Z Country profiles - A study of 60 Muslim states
- Conflicts and disasters
- Contemporary humanitarians
- Current Muslim issues
- Environment
- International organizations
- Pictorial: a) The world in pictures b) World Maps c) Flags of Muslim states
- Islam: a) The faith and its adherents b) Salient features c) Setting the record straight d) Islamic banking
- King Faisal Award
- Muslim institutions
- Science and technology
- Special section
- Statistical data
- Obituaries
- Online version available at

<http://www.MuslimWorldAlmanac.com>

Being the first and only work of its kind produced at such a scale, the Almanac should be of immense help to students, experts, lay persons and professionals. In its articles, profiles and approach to contemporary and historical issues, it resorts to a uniquely Islamic point of view that gives the discourse a rare freshness. In short, it is the world seen from a Muslim perspective.

The Almanac is an invaluable resource that no research environment can afford to overlook.
