ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dr. Hüseyin Memişoğlu was born in 1937 in Kayaloba village of Kırcalı, Bulgaria. He is a graduate of the University of Sofia and holds Doctorate Degree in Political Science awarded by the Academy of Political Science, Sofia. He has been a Faculty Member at the Department of History of the Higher Institute of Mechanical and Electrical Technology since 1971. He has portrayed the life of the Turks of Bulgaria on the basis of historical facts in his studies on the moral and material values of the Bulgarian Turks, and the Muslim-Turkish institutions in Bulgaria that came into being after the Russo - Turkish War (1877-78).

Dr. Memişoğlu sought political asylum in Turkey in March 1988, when he was fully convinced that life had become impossible in Bulgaria as the genocidal campaign against the ethnic Turks there, unleashed in 1984, intensified. Mrs. Memişoğlu and their two children are presently in Bulgaria.
