ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I wish to express my indebtedness of Professor Fred R. von der Mehden of the University of Wisconsin for the advice and guidance he gave so generously during the two years it took to complete this project. I also received indispensable help and encouragement from many other persons. Only a few can be mentioned here: Professor Kuo-p'ing Chou of the University of Wisconsin; Miss Patricia Eckenfels, of the Midwest Inter-Library Center; Mr. Frank M. LeBar, of Human Relations Area Files in New Haven; Mr. G. Raymond Nunn, head of the Asia Library at Michigan; Mr. Richard G. Irwin, of the East Asiatic Library at Berkeley; and the library staffs at Wisconsin and Yale. I also received many suggestions from persons in the Republic of China and in Hong Kong. My wife, Hana, was most helpful in drawing up many of the maps and tables. Mrs. Sandy Nash did the lengthy typing chores and skillfully mastered the peculiarities of the Wade-Giles system. While all these persons greatly contributed to this study, I alone am responsible for any factual errors.
