Mongolian Historical Writing from 1200 to 1700
by Shagdaryn Bira

2002. xxii, 240 p., bibliography, index. ISBN 0-914584-23-5. $40

This long-needed work updates as well as translates the generation-old original Russian book, including its substantial bibliography, with a new English index. "This book is extremely useful for students of Mongolian history and literature because it brings together the entire historiographic tradition of the period." Mongolian Studies

Through the Ocean Waves: The Autobiography of Bazaryn Shirendev
translated by Temujin Onon

1998. lx, 230 p., illustrations, bibliography, glossary, index.
ISBN 0-914584-80-4. $40

The memoirs of the Mongolian Republic's most distinguished scholar. A fascinating blend of historical, political and ethnographic information by a scholar who was "present at the creation" of much of twentieth century Mongolia's history. "The first autobiography of a major player in Mongolia's Communist state to be available in English." The Journal of Asian Studies
