

THE QUESTION OF SELF-DETERMINATION

THE CASES OF EAST TIMOR, TIBET AND WESTERN SAHARA

CONFERENCE REPORT

Palais des Nations, United Nations, Geneva
25-26 March 1996

National Council of Maubere Resistance
Tibetan Government in Exile
Polisario Front
in co-operation with
Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Acknowledgments	iv
Introduction to the Work of the Conference	v
Summary of the Discussion	x
Conclusions and Recommendations	xv

Speakers

The Right To Self-Determination And International Law
Richard Falk	I
The Right To Self-Determination And International Responsibility
J.M. Mukhi	6
In Each Others Shadow
Michael O'Kennedy	II
The Right To Self-Determination: A Buddhist Approach
Ajahn Sulak Sivaraksa	14
Self-Determination: The Case Of East Timor
José Ramos Horta	19
Tibet: The Right To Self-Determination
Kasur Lodi G. Gyari	27
Western Sahara And The Failure Of The United Nations
Dahi Bashir	35

Supporting documents

Program	40
Press Statement	41
UNPO statement on self-determination: UN Commission on Human Rights, 52nd session ...	42
East Timor:
International Court of Justice, Case concerning East Timor (Portugal vs. Australia)
30 June 1995 – a selection of paragraphs	45
Press articles	51
Tibet:
Maps	56
Facts on Tibet	58
London Statement on Tibet	62
UN Resolutions on Tibet	68
Western Sahara:
Polisario Front Memorandum to the Member States of the United Nations	70
International Court of Justice, Western Sahara: Advisory Opinion,
3 January 1975 – a selection of paragraphs	78
Map	86
Additional reading on East Timor, Tibet and Western Sahara	87
Conference organisers	88
UNPO – General Information	89