INDEX 273

"In Baghdad, where I have been working as a surgeon among the casualties of an ongoing war, Iraqis say that their country was invaded to secure control of its oil. Lutz Kleveman's odyssey into the heart of United States energy policy in Central Asia reveals that this conflict is just one front in a global oil war."
—JONATHAN KAPLAN, AUTHOR OF THE DRESSING STATION

"The New Great game is an urgent, vigorous insight into a vital issue of the new century. It is undertaken with clear sight and bulldog energy."
—COLIN THUBRON, AUTHOR OF THE LOST HEART OF ASIA

"A well-argued, well-observed journey into a little-known area likely to be of much importance in days to come."
