The series Papers on Inner Asia consists of scholarly papers of variable size (from 20 to 100 pages), each published and bound separately. Inner Asia is defined as the region that includes Islamic Central Asia (the areas sometimes called Western, Eastern, and Afghan Turkestan), Mongolia, and Tibet. The papers deal with various topics related to this vast region: history, philology, linguistics, anthropology, archeology, economics, contemporary problems, and so on. Works on certain subjects that transcend the boundaries of Inner Asia in its strict sense, but are relevant for the study of its languages, history, and culture, are also included, for instance, the ancient and medieval history etc. of the peoples of the East European steppes, or the modern history of Afghanistan.

The series is divided into the following subseries: (1) General; (2) Ancient Inner Asia; (3) Central Asia; (4) Mongolia and Tibet; (5) Altaic linguistics.

The series Papers on Inner Asia is designed to ensure prompt publication of scholarly papers and to facilitate the publication of longer papers, which are large enough not to be accepted by most scholarly journals. As a rule, no stylistic editing is done, with possible exceptions for papers written in a language other than the author's native tongue. After the manuscript submitted for publication is reviewed by the editors, it is returned to the author whose responsibility is to prepare a camera-ready copy of the text in accordance with technical requirements set up by the Research Institute for Inner Asian Studies, which undertakes to publish the paper within one month after the receipt of the camera-ready copy.

All correspondence related to the Papers on Inner Asia (requests for the copies of the technical requirements, proposals of papers for publication, submission of manuscripts, orders for single papers and standing orders) should be addressed to The Editor, Papers on Inner Asia, Research Institute for Inner Asian Studies, Indiana University, Goodbody Hall 343, Bloomington, Indiana 47405, U.S.A.

The price of individual copies is $ 2.95 for papers up to 50 pages in length and $ 3.95 for papers of 51 to 101 pages. Overseas customers wishing to receive the paper by air mail have to add $ 2.00.
