

The Sino-Soviet Split: A Trap For The West

By Peter Dally

The British Anti-Communist Council
31 Seneca Way, Cheltenham, Glos. GL50 4SF, U.K.

Peter Dally, political analyst, writer and lecturer. Age 53, married with two children. Born in Hull. Educated at Marist College, Hull, Yorkshire.

Served in The Royal Air Force (administration) for 4 years. Spent 11 years as a Conservative Party Election Agent and political organizer in various parts of the country. Published first freelance article at age 16. Joined Intelligence International Ltd in 1969 first as correspondent then as assistant editor. Appointed editor and principal writer in February 1974 a post held for 10 years until March 1984.

Over the years he has visited very many countries for Study Tours, Conferences and Lectures etc., including Continental Europe, the USA, The Middle East, The Far East including Hong Kong and Taiwan. Visited Rhodesia/Zimbabwe as guest of the 'Rebel' Government.

Contributed Paper (published) to seminar on Asean and East Asia in International Relations in Manila, Philippines.

Presented a Paper (published) on Human Rights at an International Seminar in Guam, USA.

Author of The Hong Kong Time Bomb which argues against current British Policy.

Currently researching for a further monograph on Human Rights. He is the Chairman of The British Anti-Communist Council and Vice Chairman of the European Council For World Freedom (ECWF) the WACL Council For Europe.

The views expressed in this book are those of the author and not necessarily those of the officers and members of The British Anti-Communist Council.

This Monograph is dedicated to the victims of Yalta.

Contents

| | | |
|-----------|--|----|
| Chapter 1 | Introduction | 1 |
| Chapter 2 | The Origins of the Split | 9 |
| Chapter 3 | Soviet Russia in China | 17 |
| Chapter 4 | The Consequences to date of the China Card | 29 |
| Chapter 5 | Moscow-Beijing Rapprochement | 39 |
| Chapter 6 | A Flawed Policy | 49 |
| Chapter 7 | The Dangers to Europe | 56 |
| Chapter 8 | Conclusion | 62 |

Also published by The British Anti-Communist Council:

Hong Kong Time Bomb

By Peter Dally

This book explains why the present policy is so wrong, short-sighted and doomed to disaster. It tries to be constructive in the interests of all concerned, not only the Hong Kong Belongers and the hundreds of thousands who have joined them, but also the interests of Britain and the free world.

Price of each book is: U.K. £3.50 including postage.
Elsewhere £4.50 or US $6.50 By Airmail.

Publishers: The British Anti-Communist Council, 31 Seneca Way, Cheltenham, Glos. GL50 4SF. United Kingdom.