

THE TURKS OF BULGARIA:
THE HISTORY, CULTURE
AND POLITICAL FATE OF A MINORITY

EDITED BY K. H. KARPAT

THE ISIS PRESS
ISTANBUL

THE TURKS OF BULGARIA

Published by
The Isis Press,
Şemsibey Sokak 10, Beylerbeyi
81210 Istanbul. Tel. 321 38 51

First Printing 1990

ISBN 975-428-017-7.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Kemal H. Karpat : Introduction: Bulgaria's Methods of Nation Building and the Turkish Minority	1
Ilhan Şahin, Feridun M. Emecen, & Yusuf Halaçoğlu : Turkish Settlements in Rumelia (Bulgaria) in the 15th and 16th Centuries	23
R. J. Crampton : The Turks in Bulgaria, 1878-1944	43
Machiel Kiel : Urban Development in Bulgaria in the Turkish Period: The Place of Turkish Architecture in the Process	79
Bilâl Şimşir : The Turkish Minority in Bulgaria: History and Culture	159
Bernard Lory : Ahmed Aga Tămraşlijata: The Last Derebey of the Rhodopes	179
Ali Eminov : There Are No Turks in Bulgaria	203
Alf Grannes : Turkish Influence on Bulgarian	223
A. Mete Tuncoku : The Rights of Minorities in International Law: The Case of the Turkish Minority in the People's Republic of Bulgaria	241

About the authors

1. Kemal H. Karpat, the editor is Distinguished Professor of History, and Chairman, Middle East Studies Program University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA. He is the author of a dozen books, including Ottoman Population 1830-1914, and more than one hundred articles published in some sixteen countries. A well-known authority on the Balkans he has visited Bulgaria many times.
2. İlhan Şahin, Feridun M. Emecen, and Yusuf Halacoğlu are associate professors at Marmara and Istanbul Universities. All are affiliated as research consultants with the Prime Minister's Archives in Istanbul and have published numerous studies based on the *defter*s (registers of population surveys). Their joint work, the basic defter of 1530, the most complete survey of Ottoman Bulgaria is due to appear soon.
3. Richard L. Crampton, a leading authority on Bulgaria is professor in the Department of History, University of Kent at Canterbury, United Kingdom. He is the author of Bulgaria 1878-1918.
4. Machiel Kiel affiliated with the University of Utrecht is presently working with the Institute of Balkan Studies in Bonn, West Germany. He has conducted extended field research in Bulgaria. His latest work is Art and Society of Bulgaria in the Turkish Period.
5. Bilal Şimşir who was born and received his early education in Bulgaria is a member of the Turkish Historical Society, and has held diplomatic positions. He is the author of several studies including Rumeliden Göçler (Migration from Rumelia) and has published the major sections of the English diplomatic correspondence related to Bulgaria in the 19th century.
6. Bernard Lory is affiliated with the University of Paris and has conducted extensive research in Bulgaria. His most recent publication is Le Sort de l'Héritage Ottoman en Bulgarie.
7. Ali Eminov is a professor in the Department of Sociology at Wayne University, Nebraska, USA. He was born and worked in Bulgaria prior to his settlement in the United States. He is the author of several studies related to the sociology of East Europe.
8. Alf Grannes is a professor of languages in the Russian Institute at the University of Bergen, Norway. He has worked extensively on the Turkic minorities in East Europe and the USSR. His recent works include studies of the press among the Turkic groups in the Caucasus and Central Asia.
9. A. Mete Tuncoku teaches at the Middle East Technical University in Ankara, Turkey. He specializes in international relations.

The articles in this volume were submitted originally to the International Journal of Turkish Studies, published at the University of Wisconsin, 4255 Humanities Building, Madison, Wisconsin 53706 USA.