

TURKIC STUDIES

IN THE WORLD AND TURKEY

Editors : Nadir DEVLET, İnci ENGINUN and Emine GURSOY - NASKALI

İstanbul — 1987

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We should like to thank the following individuals and institutions for their support and help in the realisation of the symposium on «Turkic Studies in the World and Turkey»: Türk Tanıtma Fonu, Ankara; Turkish Airlines (THY); Turkish Radio and Television Corporation (TRT); Nezih Demirkent, Chairman of the Turkish Press Association; The Society for Central Asian Studies, Oxford; The Japan Society for the Promotion of Sciences, Tokyo; Büyük Kulüp, İstanbul.

Istanbul 1987

N.D.

I.E.

E.G. - N.

CONTENTS

The Programme of the Symposium	7
Opening Speech by Prof. Dr. Orhan Oğuz	9
Opening Speech by Prof. Dr. Hakkı Dursun Yıldız	11
Alexandre Bennigsen, «Why Turkic Studies are Important?»	13
Chantal Lemerclier-Quelquejey, «Turkic Studies in Europe»	29
Nadir Devlet, «Turkic Studies in Turkey»	40
Masayuki Yamauchi, «The Dynamics of the Evolution and Interaction in the Muslim Minorities of the USSR (Turkic Studies in Japan)»	57
Hasan Eren «Turkic Studies in the Balkan Countries and Hungary»	69
Azade-Ayşe Rorlich, «The Turkic Peoples of the Soviet Union: Notes on the Issue of National-Religious Consciousness»	81
Hans Baeker, «The Geopolitical Situation of Central Asia»	119
Contributors	129