

Inner ASIA

volume 4, number 1
2002

Inner ASIA

Volume 4

2002

Number 1

Special Issue: Travelling Cultures and Histories
Nation-Building and Frontier Politics In Twentieth Century China

EDITORIAL INTRODUCTION	Uradyn E. Bulag	1
TRAVEL-WRITING IMAGINED COMMUNITIES
The Power of Imagination: Whose Northeast and Whose Manchuria?	Li Narango	3
Between Chinese Nationalism and Soviet Colonisation: A Chinese Orientalist's Narration of Inner and Outer Mongolia (1926–1927)	Wurlig Borchigud	27
TRAVEL AS CULTURE ON THE BORDERLAND
Allegorising the Local on the Borderland: Ai Wu's Nanxingji and National Subjectivity	Peng Wenbin	47
The Barbarian Borderland and the Chinese Imagination: Travellers in Wa Country	Magnus Fiskesjö	81
Triste and Carol on the Journey to the Cool Mountains: Culture as Travel	Pan Jiao	101
ETHNOHISTORY AND MINZU CONFIGURATION
How Many Minzu in a Nation? Modern Travellers Meet China's Frontier Peoples	Jonathan N. Lipman	113
Searching for Qiang Culture in the First Half of the Twentieth Century	Ming-ke Wang	131
An Ethnographic World Formulated: On Yih-fu Ruey's Academic Construction of Minority Histories and Cultures in South China	Shih-chung Hsieh	149
BOOK REVIEW
Urgunge Onon (trans.) The Secret History of the Mongols: The Life and Times of Chinggis Khan (A. Hürelbaatar)		167