

I S L A M I C
WORLD
R E V I E W

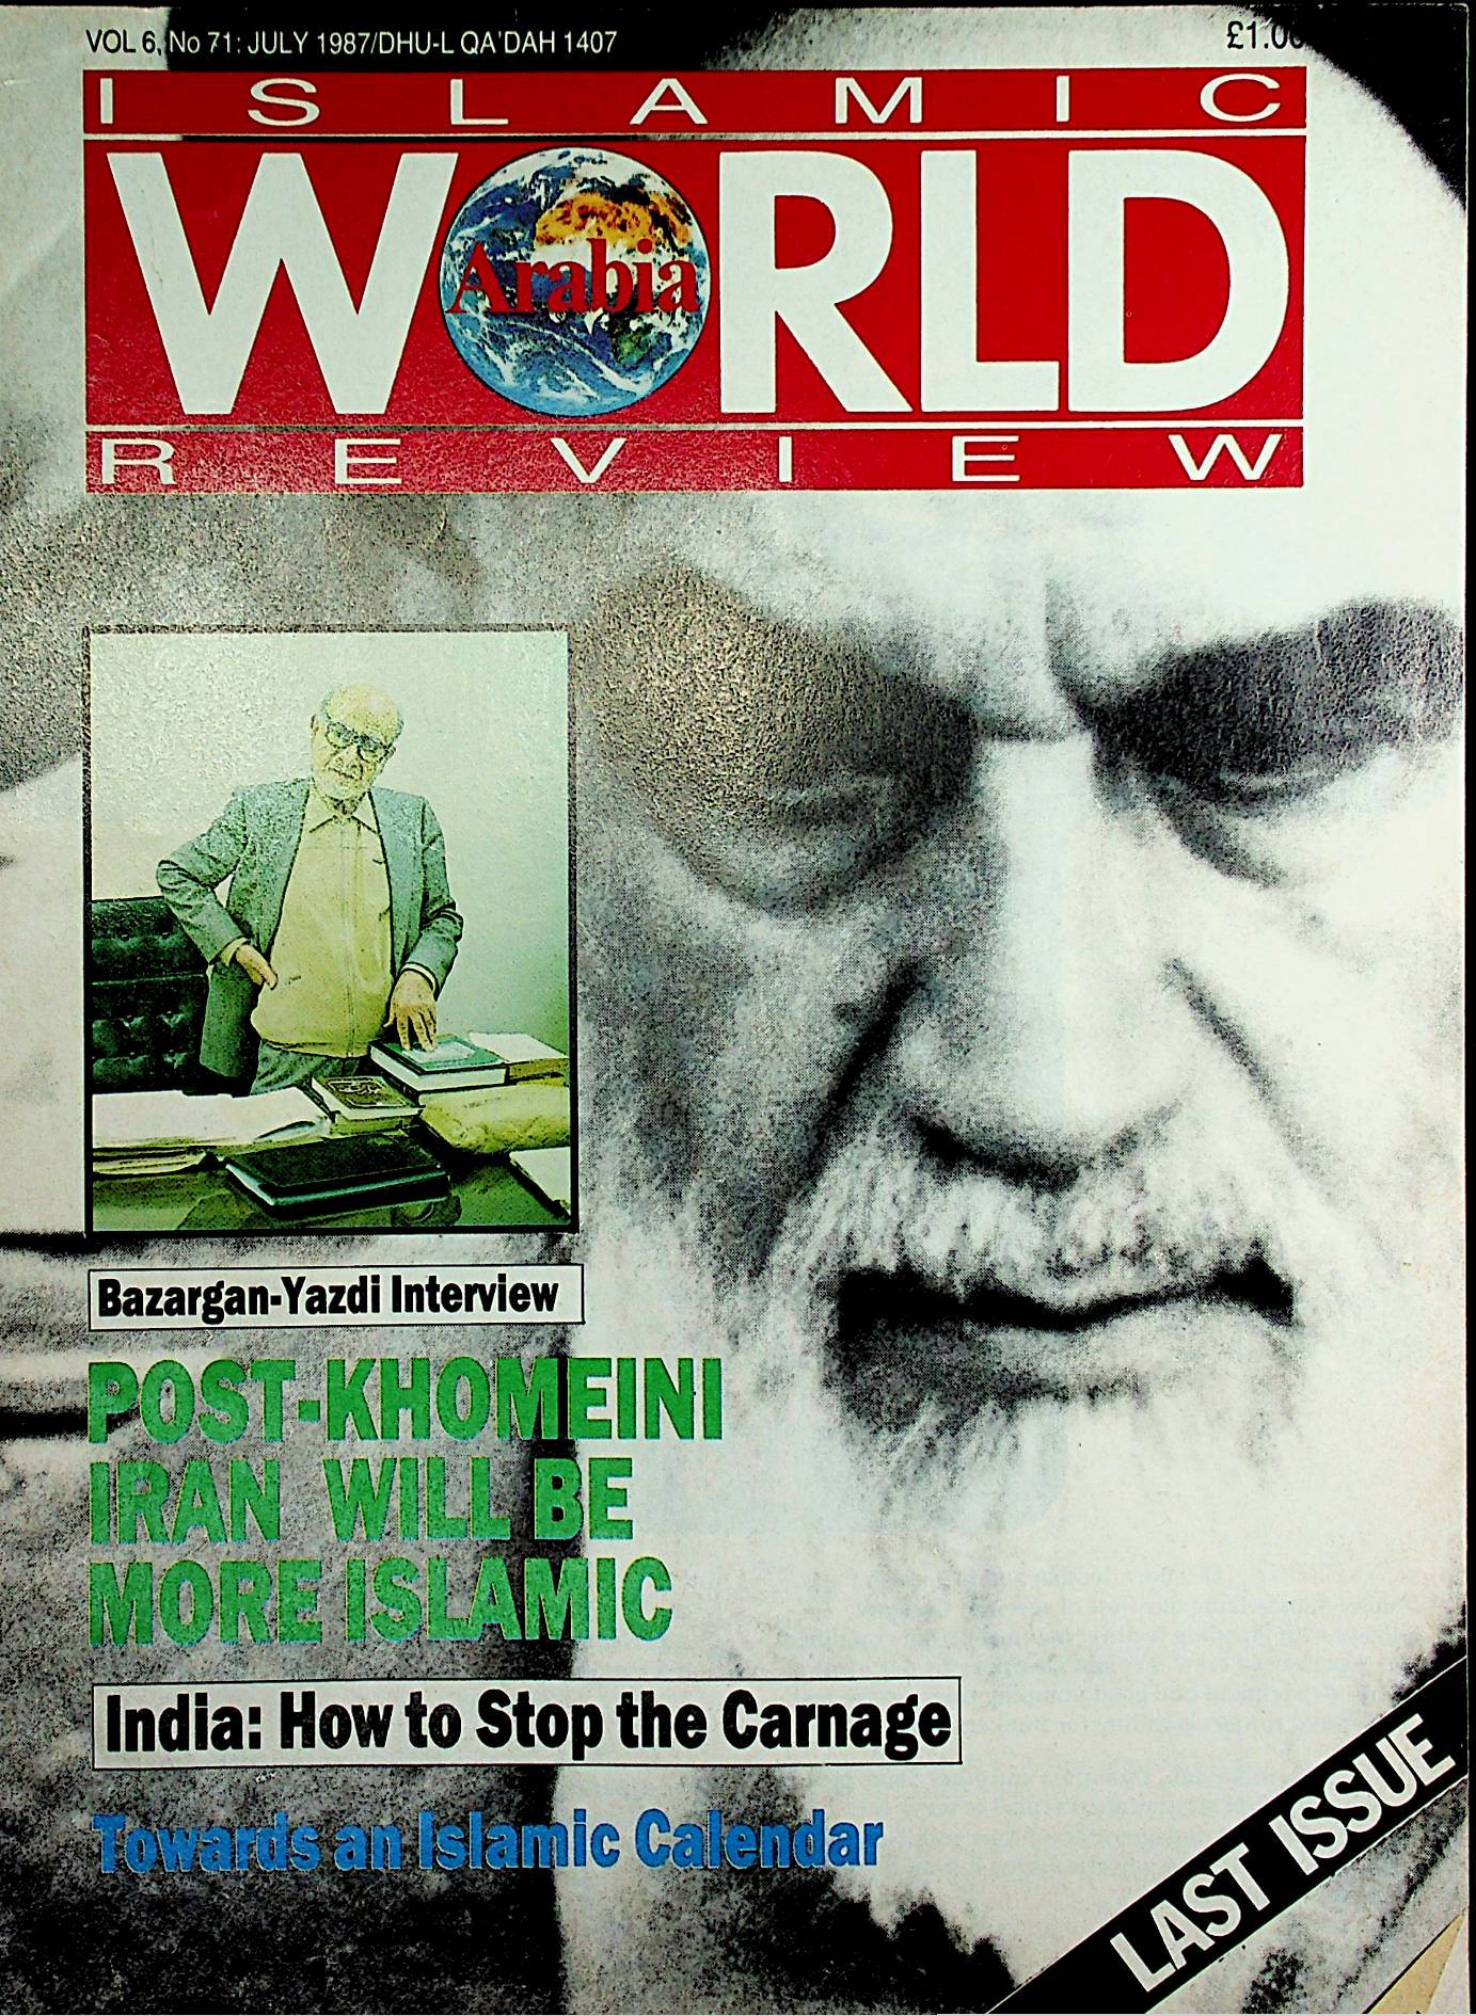

Bazargan-Yazdi Interview

POST-KHOMEINI
IRAN WILL BE MORE ISLAMIC

India: How to Stop the Carnage

Towards an Islamic Calendar

LAST ISSUE

28 Thatcher's third term

ISLAMIC WORLD REVIEW

23 Meerut after 130 years

26 Tajiks' Islamic revival

C O N T E N T S

COVER

Cover photo: Ayatollah Khomeini and (inset) Mehdi Bazargan

20 Movement for the Liberation of Iran

Wilhelm and Gulshan Dietl interviewed the founder of the Nehzat-e Azadi-e Iran, Dr Mehdi Bazargan (former Prime Minister and opponent of the occupation of the US Embassy and the holding of the Hostages), and his co-worker, Dr Ibrahim Yazdi (former Foreign Minister of the Republic) for The Islamic World Review in Teheran. The two opponents of the Mullahs' Régime had some interesting things to say

8 & 23 The Meerut Massacre

In his Editorial, Abdelwahab El-Affendi considers How to stop the Carnage (page 8), and various correspondents of The Islamic World Review report from India on the outrages (Meerut 1987: Conduct to the prejudice of good order . . .) (page 23).

53 The Islamic Lunar Calendar

CURRENT ISSUES

26 The Absurd Request

S. Enders Wimbush discusses the problems of Soviet imperial rule in Tajikistan in the light of the jihād in Afghanistan and how it is infecting the Muslims of Central Asia.

28 The 1987 British Election

Adam Kemp reports for The Islamic World Review on the victorious outcome of the 11 June General Election for the Conservative Party and the way the campaign was conducted. Ayman Ahwal considers the phenomenon of the appearance for the first time of "the Muslim Vote" and the emergence of several Muslim candidates.

30 Islam and Missions: Muhammad or Christ?

ISLAMIC FINANCE

35 Editorials

In the first Editorial (World Economy and Third World Debt: prospects of compromise?) a look is taken at the possibilities presented by a recent decision of Citicorp. The second Editorial (The Nile and Egypt's Economy) considers the problems facing Egypt as a result of changes wrought by the River.

38 Arab Aid Prospects

Despite a slump in oil commodity prices and sluggish bank credits, the programmes of the Arab aid agencies are in full swing and promise to expand further.

40 Vatican money problems?

The Vatican, the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church, is facing scandals and money problems some associates with Archbishop Marcinkus's adventures

LIVING HERITAGE

52 The Institute of Mappilla Studies

The Malayalam-speaking people of Kerala, south India, have their own Indo-Arab Islamic culture. The north Indians and many other Muslims know too little about them. The Institute of Mappilla Studies seeks to remedy this. Maqbool Ahmed Siraj reports.

57 Hariri Foundation

Mr Rafiq al-Hariri set up the Hariri Foundation in Beirut. The Islamic World Review profiles this interesting place.

59 Fifth Arab Film Festival

The Fifth Arab Film Festival was held in Paris, and the Egyptian director, Mr Muhammad Khan, was interviewed for The Islamic World Review.

REGULAR FEATURES

5 Feature of the Month

Eid in Britain

9 Letters and Replies

11 Newsmonth

15 World Survey

32 Media

33 On Reflection

44 Forum

Sub-Marxist ruminations on the Contras; a response to the Forum article on Muslim Americans' dilemma.

49 Books

56 By the way

Aslam Abdullah comments on his feelings about the closing down of Arabia: The Islamic World Review

60 Profile

The Islamic World Review profiles the leading Hanafi jurisprudent and principal sheikh of the Naqshbandi Sufi Order, Sheikh Nazim al-Haqqani

62 Personal Notebook